"Wow!! Nine challenging days with superb training. It's intense, it's rewarding, it's sometimes unbelievable, but most of all it's fun. If you have completed the Practitioner course... this course is a must.

I have achieved more in nine days during this course than I have achieved in the last nine years.

Michael Cummings, NLP Master Practitioner & Coach

"An excellent natural follow-on from the NLP Practitioner programme; building on and drawing on knowledge already existing within myself.

New learnings centred around powerful "light bulb" moments. The depth and breadth of material covered was extensive and delivered in a variety of styles that enabled me to see and know how I would be able to use all my learnings in a practical way in both life and work. All of which was underpinned by a strong ethical ethos."

Russell Harvey, Training Consultant, Coach, Change Agent, Data Services, npower

"The training covered the areas of NLP which most people would expect to be covered. What sets this course apart are some special "secret" additions and the highly experiential delivery and participation. "

A Smith, Leeds

"The value to me, was to take very rough skills and ideas and develop them to a level of mastery in a very intense manner. This has the benefit of raising confidence and meeting my own "convincer" criteria.

An essential part of the training is the effective training, and the strong contribution of the other participants - both aspects were exceptional !!!"

R Walsh

"Having completed the Practitioner and Masters course within a month, I can thoroughly recommend both courses. They are taught by Phil and Susanna in an enlightening, empowering and often surprising way, which will inform and equip you to put NLP into your life in any way you choose."

Marian Terry

"What can I say? The most transforming 9 days of my life! Amazing! Thank you so much!"

Sarah Barrett, Director, ACC Ltd, Brighton

"The course has been pivotal in the development and growth of me, my life and all aspects of my life. As well as embedding new skills and encouraging my application of them to help others, the safe environment Susanna and Phil create enabled me to explore things deep inside and help facilitate positive change on a fundamental personal level. Thank you, I am a successful, strong, but now more trusting person."

April Britton, Barclays Bank UK

"Absolutely awesome!"

My 'wish list' goals were attained within the first 3 days. As the fundamentals of NLP were covered we moved into the mastery of NLP and the group started to create new patterns. I really felt as if I was in a pioneering development group. All of the trainers and assistants are friendly, good-humoured, down-to-earth and highly skilled. This course went way beyond what I expected. Superb value."
